What sets members of the Masters Circle apart?

#1

They have the experience to provide exceptional results

When selling your home, a seasoned broker can save you time and money. Understanding how to interpret current market conditions and position your home for a faster, smoother transaction requires knowledge and skills only gained through experience.

In the past year, members of the Masters Circle have completed anywhere from $2 million to over $230 million in a variety of home sales. This wide range of experience provides them with valuable expertise that benefits their clients.

They give back to their community

Not only is the Masters Circle committed to serving their clients, they are committed to serving their community at large! Our members seek to build and strengthen the relationships between the real estate industry and their communities. The Masters Circle donates proceeds from their annual silent auction to local non-profits working to improve our community such as the African American Alliance for Homeownership, Northwest Children's Outreach, Union Gospel Mission, JOIN, and more.

They form a network of knowledge

A knowledgeable Realtor® can help you find a home best meeting your needs and expectations. You get access to their resources and knowledge of the market area and available inventory as well as their ability to recommend other qualified housing professionals. This includes mortgage lenders, home inspectors, and others whose services will be integral to a great home buying experience.

When a Realtor® joins the Masters Circle, they join a network of accomplished professionals who help each other improve their skills. This network of knowledge and experience helps them serve you – the client!
